Andorra visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: No Andorran visa; Schengen visa for transit · Last checked: 4 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/andorra/

Andorra's Ministry of Foreign Affairs says the Principality does not require any type of visa, but Andorra is not a member of the Schengen Area and there is no airport, so you can only enter through France or Spain. Bangladeshi citizens normally need a Schengen visa from France or Spain to cross those countries; it is that visa, not an Andorran one, that you apply for in Dhaka. The Ministry tells third-country nationals to check with the French or Spanish embassy for their point of entry. If the Schengen visa is single-entry, the Ministry notes a double or multiple-entry visa is needed if you will re-enter Schengen from Andorra. Last checked 4 November 2026.

Quick facts

Visa needed?

Andorra itself requires no visa. Entry is only through France or Spain, so a Bangladeshi citizen needs the Schengen visa required by the country of entry. The Ministry asks third-country nationals to confirm with the French or Spanish embassy.

How to travel

- The Andorran government says Andorra does not require any visa and is not in the Schengen Area; access is through France or Spain. The Ministry says it cannot provide information on visa requirements for other countries and refers travellers to the French or Spanish embassy or consulate.
- Choose the Schengen state you will enter first (France or Spain). If you will visit Andorra from Spain or France and then re-enter Schengen, tell the consulate so you can request a double or multiple-entry visa. See our Schengen guide at /visa/schengen/ for how Dhaka centres work.

Things to watch

- Andorra is not in the Schengen Area but you cannot reach it without crossing France or Spain; apply for the Schengen visa of your entry country.
- A Schengen visa is not issued by Andorra. Ask for a double or multiple-entry visa if you will leave Andorra back into Schengen.
- A commercial site says ETIAS is required from late 2025 for visa-exempt travellers; this does not apply to Bangladeshis who need a visa, and we did not verify it officially.

- Do not use dummy tickets or fake bookings.
- Travel Counsellor Ltd. is a private consultancy, not an embassy. Visa decisions rest with the French or Spanish authority.
- No approval is guaranteed, and fees and rules change.
