Comoros visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Visa on arrival (cash, EUR 30) · Last checked: 6 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/comoros/

UK government advice says a visa is required for Comoros and can be bought for 30 euros on arrival at Hahaya airport or other points of entry. We could not open an official Comorian government page, so the fee, stay length, payment method and whether Bangladeshi passport holders are treated the same are marked for confirmation. The UK advice does not name any area to avoid, but no travel is guaranteed safe. Last checked 6 November 2026.

Entry and visa on arrival

- UK advice states that a visa is required and that it can be purchased on arrival for 30 euros at Hahaya airport or other entry points. Because Bangladeshi passport holders were not specifically addressed on any official page we could read, confirm eligibility with the Comoros embassy in Paris or our office before you book flights. Airlines may check your documents at departure.

Total cost

- Government fee: 30 euros on arrival (UK government advice, 6 November 2026); some third-party sites quote higher figures. Bring cash in euros and a small margin, because card payment and airport ATMs are reported unavailable by third parties. Travel Counsellor Ltd. service charges, if any, are quoted separately in BDT by our office. Fees change.

Processing time

- The visa is issued at the border, so there is no advance processing time on the official advice we could read. Decisions rest with Comorian immigration officers.
