Dominica visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: No visa listed for Commonwealth citizens (confirm) · Last checked: 4 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/dominica/

The Government of the Commonwealth of Dominica page 'Do I need a visa to enter into Dominica?' exempts citizens of Commonwealth of Nations countries from a visa for stays of up to six months. Bangladesh is a Commonwealth member, so Bangladeshi citizens appear to be covered, but the page does not name Bangladesh and does not give fees, documents or conditions, so we mark this for confirmation. Third-party sites quote 21 days or six months. No Dominica mission in Dhaka was verified. Last checked 4 November 2026.

How to travel

- The official page says citizens of Commonwealth of Nations members, CARICOM states and other listed countries do not need a visa for stays up to six months. It also lists a 21-day category for in-transit passengers or bona fide tourists with a return ticket. The page does not name Bangladesh, so confirm with the immigration authorities which category applies.
- Visa-free status does not guarantee entry. Immigration officers decide at the port of entry. Be ready to show your purpose of visit, a return ticket, accommodation and funds with genuine documents.

Partly verified

Total cost

- Visa government fee: none if no visa is needed; none is stated on the official page. Travel Counsellor Ltd. service charges, if any, are quoted separately in BDT by our office. Checked 4 November 2026.

Partly verified

Transit and connecting visas

- Flights from Dhaka to Dominica usually connect through other countries (often the US, UK, Canada, the Middle East or other Caribbean islands) which may require their own transit or entry visas. Check each country's rules separately.

Things to watch

- The official page does not name Bangladesh; it relies on the Commonwealth exemption. Confirm with Dominica authorities before booking.
- Third-party sites quote 21 days or six months. Rely on the official page and confirm which applies.
- Do not use dummy tickets or fake bookings.
- Travel Counsellor Ltd. is a private consultancy, not an embassy. Entry decisions rest with Dominica immigration.
- No approval is guaranteed and rules can change.
