Ethiopia visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Tourist eVisa (evisa.gov.et) · Last checked: 2 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/ethiopia/

Ethiopia runs an official online eVisa portal at evisa.gov.et. Its tourist page states that citizens of all countries are eligible if the listed requirements are met, which includes Bangladeshi passport holders. We could not read the full portal text on 31 October 2026, so the fee, documents and passport rules below are marked for confirmation with our office.

Quick facts

Visa needed?
Yes for tourism. The official portal says citizens of all countries can apply for the tourist eVisa if the requirements are met. No Bangladesh-specific entry was found.

How to apply

- Apply on the official portal evisa.gov.et, upload the required documents, pay the fee online and carry the approved eVisa with your passport.
- Use only evisa.gov.et. Third-party sites charge extra service fees.

Fee and stay

- The official tourist page reportedly lists USD 62 for a 30-day single-entry visa and USD 152 for a 90-day single-entry visa. A USD 52 figure belongs to the separate conference visa and does not apply to tourists.
- Total cost = government fee plus any bank or card charges. If you use our office for help with the form, our service charge is extra and quoted before you pay.
