Fiji visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Visa required before travel (apply online) · Last checked: 3 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/fiji/

Fiji's Ministry of Immigration lists the countries whose citizens do not need a Fiji visa. Bangladesh does not appear on that visa-exempted list, so Bangladeshi citizens should plan to get a visa before travelling. Visas are applied for online through the ministry's IMMIHUB portal. Fees, processing time and documents below come from the ministry's visa page; some details are marked for confirmation. Last checked 3 November 2026.

Quick facts

Visa needed?
Yes, in practice. Bangladesh is not on the ministry's 'Visa exempted countries' list, and visas are required for non-exempted countries. The page does not name Bangladesh in a separate 'visa required' list.

How to apply

- Apply online on the IMMIHUB portal before you travel and wait for the outcome email. Do not buy non-refundable tickets before the visa is decided. A visa does not guarantee entry; officers decide at the border.
- The ministry page does not list a mission in Bangladesh. Fiji's foreign ministry lists its High Commission in New Delhi under Bangladesh; confirm with them whether they take any part in applications.

Partly verified

Total cost

- Government visa fee: single entry 93.00, multiple entry 185.00 (currency to be confirmed). Add document certification, photos, airfare and any transit visas. Travel Counsellor Ltd. service charges for document checks, if any, are quoted separately in BDT by our office. Checked 3 November 2026.

Partly verified

Processing time

- The ministry says about 14 working days after a Visa Officer receives a complete application. Apply well before your travel date.

Transit and connecting visas

- Flights from Dhaka usually connect through other countries, which may need their own transit visas. Transit through Fiji needs its own application with proof of an approved visa for the next destination and an onward ticket.
