How to travel

- Reference sources say Bangladeshi citizens can enter Kiribati without a visa, for tourism or short visits, for up to 90 days within any 12-month period. The official order text was not opened by us, so ask the Immigration Division to confirm in writing.
- Flights to Tarawa are infrequent and usually connect through Fiji, Nauru or Brisbane, which may require their own transit or entry visas. Check each country separately.
- Visitor entry is for tourism, meetings, conferences and transit. Work, study and business activity need a proper permit before arrival.

Partly verified

Total cost

- Visa government fee: none if you are visa-exempt (to be confirmed). Flights are the main cost. Travel Counsellor Ltd. service charges, if any, are quoted separately in BDT by our office. Checked 3 November 2026.

Partly verified

Processing time

- No processing time applies if exempt. If you need a visa or permit, ask the Immigration Division for current timelines.

Things to watch

- Visa-free status comes from reference sources citing the 2023 Order; confirm with the Immigration Division before booking.
- Taiwanese passports are reported to be refused entry; this does not affect Bangladeshi passports.
- Do not use dummy tickets or fake bookings.
- Travel Counsellor Ltd. is a private consultancy, not an embassy. Entry decisions rest with Kiribati immigration.
- No approval is guaranteed and rules can change.

Frequently asked questions

Do Bangladeshis need a visa for Kiribati?

Reference sources citing the Immigration Entry and Visa Exemption Order 2023 say no for short visits, but we could not open the order. Confirm with the Immigration Division.

How long can I stay?

Reports say up to 90 days within any 12-month period. The officer at the port of entry decides.

Is there a Kiribati embassy in Dhaka?

We found none. Use the Immigration Division email visaofficer@mfa.gov.ki.

Can I work or study on visa-free entry?

No. Visitor entry does not allow work, study or business activity; those need a separate permit.
