Mauritania visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Online e-visa authorisation (ANRPTS), fee paid in cash at the border · Last checked: 5 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/mauritania/

Since 5 January 2025 Mauritania has issued visas through the online portal of the National Agency for the Population Register and Secure Titles (ANRPTS) at anrpts.gov.mr, and Mauritanian embassies abroad no longer issue visas. You register online, receive a confirmation code, and pay the fee in cash at the designated entry point where biometrics are taken. The ANRPTS visa page offers 30, 90 and 360 day packages. Bangladesh is not named on the pages we read, so Bangladesh-specific eligibility and the current fee are marked partly verified or for confirmation. Last checked 5 November 2026.

Quick facts

Visa needed?
Yes, in practice. Visa on arrival ended on 5 January 2025 and an online e-visa is required. Bangladesh is not named on the pages we read.

How to apply

- Complete the online request at anrpts.gov.mr/visa/requestvisa: choose a package, enter passport and traveller details, upload the passport scan and photo, then review. A confirmation code is issued once the request is approved. You can track the request on the portal.
- Print the approval and bring it with the code. At the border, biometrics are captured and the fee is paid in cash to receive the entry visa.
- Technical help: contact@anrpts.gov.mr, or the WhatsApp numbers on the portal. Travel Counsellor Ltd. can help check your details before you submit, but the decision rests with Mauritanian authorities.
