Monaco visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Schengen visa via France; no Monaco visa · Last checked: 4 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/monaco/

Monaco does not run its own short-stay visa system for visitors. Monaco's embassy pages say non-EEA nationals must hold a valid passport and a Schengen visa, that requests go to the embassy of the Schengen country you will enter first, and that once you hold a Schengen visa you can visit the Principality with no additional formalities. France-Visas says that when Monaco is the main destination, the French consulate issues a Schengen visa valid for Monaco and the Schengen area. For Bangladeshi citizens this means applying through the French channel in Dhaka (or the entry state you choose). Last checked 4 November 2026.

- If Monaco is your main destination, ask the French consulate to treat it as such. Our Schengen guide at /visa/schengen/ explains how Dhaka centres work.

Things to watch

- Monaco issues no tourist visa of its own; do not pay anyone for a 'Monaco visa'.
- Some commercial pages call Monaco inside or outside Schengen; the practical rule on official pages is the same: you need a Schengen visa.
- Do not use dummy tickets or fake bookings.
- Travel Counsellor Ltd. is a private consultancy, not an embassy. Visa decisions rest with the French or other Schengen authority.
- No approval is guaranteed, and fees and rules change.
