

Morocco visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Tourist e-visa or sticker visa (confirm) · Last checked: 31 October 2026 · Online version: <https://travelcsbd.com/visa/morocco/>

Bangladeshi ordinary passport holders normally need a visa for Morocco. Third-party guides say Bangladesh is eligible for the Moroccan e-visa on acces-maroc.ma, but the official portal pages we opened on 31 October 2026 showed no readable eligibility list, fee or document list. All details below are therefore marked 'Confirm with our office'.

Quick facts

Where to apply: receiving authority

Morocco e-visa portal (Kingdom of Morocco) - online application

Address: Online application; no counter in Dhaka confirmed

Web: <https://www.acces-maroc.ma/>

Note: Third-party guides list Bangladesh as e-visa eligible, but the official portal did not display its eligibility list to us. If Bangladesh is not eligible, a sticker visa is needed from a Moroccan mission; we could not confirm which mission covers Bangladesh. Ask our office before paying anything.

Confirm with our office

Moroccan consular portal (Ministry of Foreign Affairs)

Address: Online information; mission covering Bangladesh not confirmed

Web: <https://www.consulat.ma/>

Note: Use to find the Moroccan mission that accepts applications from Bangladesh residents.

What we could verify

- The official e-visa portal is acces-maroc.ma. When we opened it on 31 October 2026 it displayed only interface labels, so no fee, stay or eligibility list could be read. The Moroccan Foreign Ministry e-visa page was blocked for our request.
- Because of this we do not state any fee or rule as officially confirmed.

Partly verified

Cost estimate

- The government fee reported by third parties is roughly USD 30 to USD 50. Add the agent service charge, courier and bank charges. Our office will give a total in BDT after checking the live portal.

Timing and stay

- Reported e-visa processing is a few working days and the reported stay is up to 30 days. Apply well before travel and do not buy non-refundable tickets until the visa is issued.
