Mozambique visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Embassy visa; Bangladesh excluded from eVisa portal · Last checked: 6 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/mozambique/

Mozambique's official portal evisa.gov.mz states that travellers from several countries, including Bangladesh, are not allowed to apply through the eVisa portal and must request a visa at the nearest embassy. The portal does not list a fee or processing time on the page we read, and we could not verify an official embassy in Dhaka or New Delhi. UK government advice (for UK passports, not Bangladesh) shows the eVisa/ETA fee as about 47 USD for UK citizens only; that does not apply to Bangladeshi applicants. The UK government advises against all travel to parts of Cabo Delgado, Nampula and Niassa provinces. Fees, documents and the mission that serves Bangladesh are marked for confirmation. Last checked 6 November 2026.

Quick facts

Security advisory
UK FCDO advises against all travel to parts of Cabo Delgado (except Palma town and Pemba/Afungi areas, where it advises against all but essential travel), Memba and Eráti districts in Nampula, and Mecula and Marrupa districts in Niassa.
Official source checked

Visa needed?
Yes. Bangladesh is not visa-exempt and is listed as not allowed to use the eVisa portal (evisa.gov.mz).

How to apply

- The official eVisa portal (evisa.gov.mz) states Bangladesh is among the countries not allowed to apply online, so a Bangladeshi applicant must request the visa at the nearest embassy. We could not confirm which mission serves Bangladesh or its application rules. Contact our office before sending your passport anywhere. Do not use unofficial websites that sell Mozambique visas.

Partly verified

Processing time

- No official processing time was found for embassy applications. Allow plenty of time.
