Saint Kitts and Nevis visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Entry status for Bangladesh unconfirmed (eTA or eVisa) · Last checked: 4 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/saint-kitts-and-nevis/

Saint Kitts and Nevis runs an Electronic Travel Authorisation (eTA) portal for most visitors and an eVisa for nationals who need a visa. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs says 67 countries and territories need a visa, but we could not read the country-by-country list, so we cannot say from an official page whether Bangladesh is on it. Unofficial summaries say Bangladeshi passport holders need an eTA for up to 90 days, but this is not confirmed on an official page. No mission of Saint Kitts and Nevis in Dhaka was found. Confirm with the Ministry before you book. Last checked 4 November 2026.

Quick facts

Visa needed?
Not confirmed. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs page says 67 countries and territories need a visa but the list could not be read. An unofficial summary (Wikipedia, citing the eTA system) lists Bangladesh under eTA for up to 90 days. Confirm with the Ministry.

How to travel

- Saint Kitts and Nevis asks most foreign visitors to complete an eTA or the online Immigration and Customs form before arrival through the official portal knatravelform.kn. Nationals of countries on the visa-required list apply for an eVisa instead. The Ministry's visa-required list is shown country by country and we could not read it, so Bangladesh's status must be confirmed directly.
- Be careful with third-party sites that sell 'visa' services. The Ministry's page links to an outside operator for visa applications and does not say whether it is government-affiliated, so check the Ministry before paying anyone.
- Neither an eTA nor an eVisa guarantees entry. Immigration officers decide at the port of entry.

Total cost

- eVisa government fee: US$100 per application, non-refundable (High Commission London page, undated). eTA fee: not confirmed on an official page. Travel Counsellor Ltd. service charges, if any, are quoted separately in BDT by our office, and BDT conversion should be confirmed with our office. Checked 4 November 2026.

Transit and connecting visas

- Flights from Dhaka to the Caribbean usually connect through the US, UK, Canada or the Middle East, which may need their own transit or entry visas. Check each country's rules separately.

Things to watch

- The Ministry's visa-required list could not be read, so Bangladesh's status is not confirmed. Do not rely on third-party sites, which disagree.
- Stay length and eTA fee are not confirmed on an official page.
- Use only the official eTA portal (knatravelform.kn) and Ministry-confirmed eVisa channels; check before paying any outside site.
- Do not use dummy tickets or fake bookings.
- Travel Counsellor Ltd. is a private consultancy, not an embassy. Entry decisions rest with Saint Kitts and Nevis immigration.

- No approval is guaranteed and rules and fees can change.

Frequently asked questions

Do Bangladeshis need a visa for Saint Kitts and Nevis?
We could not confirm this on an official page. The Ministry says 67 countries need a visa but the list was not readable. Unofficial summaries say an eTA is needed. Confirm with the Ministry at foreignaffairs@mofa.gov.kn.

Where do I apply from Dhaka?
No mission in Dhaka was found. eTA applications are online at knatravelform.kn. For an eVisa, confirm the channel with the Ministry.

How much is the eVisa?
US$100 on the High Commission London page (undated, non-refundable). Confirm the current fee before applying.

Is entry guaranteed?
No. Immigration officers decide at the border, and rules can change.
