Saint Lucia visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Visa required (confirm with Saint Lucia) · Last checked: 4 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/saint-lucia/

The Saint Lucia Ministry of External Affairs offers a Non-Immigrant Visa for foreign nationals from countries that need one, but its page does not list countries or name Bangladesh. Unofficial sources (Wikipedia, citing the government visa list and Timatic) say Bangladeshi citizens need a visa and cannot get one on arrival, so we treat a visa as likely required and mark it for confirmation. The official page gives fees of EC$125 (single entry) and EC$190 (multiple entry), 5 working days processing and the application route through the Royal Saint Lucia Police Force visa office. No Saint Lucia mission in Dhaka was verified. Last checked 4 November 2026.

How to apply

- The Ministry of External Affairs page 'Apply for Saint Lucia Non-Immigrant Visa' says the application is made to the Immigration department at least two weeks before travel, through the Royal Saint Lucia Police Force visa office. The application form is a PDF linked on that page.
- The page notes a visa can sometimes be applied for at the airport on arrival but may be refused. This should not be relied on by Bangladeshi travellers, and we could not confirm that it applies to them.
- A visa does not guarantee entry. Immigration officers decide at the port of entry.
