Saint Vincent and the Grenadines visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Pre-entry visa required (official tourism page) · Last checked: 4 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/saint-vincent-and-the-grenadines/

The Saint Vincent and the Grenadines Ministry of Tourism entry requirements page lists Bangladesh among the countries whose nationals must obtain a pre-entry visa, and says applications go to the Ministry of National Security. Wikipedia and some aggregators say Bangladeshis can enter visa-free for 3 months, which conflicts with the official page, so rely on the official list and confirm with the Ministry. The official pages we could open do not give the fee, documents, stay or processing time; an EC$200 fee was seen in a search summary of a foreign ministry page we could not open. No mission in Dhaka was verified. Last checked 4 November 2026.

How to apply

- The Ministry of Tourism page says nationals of the listed countries, including Bangladesh, must obtain a pre-entry visa and that applications go to the Ministry of National Security, which publishes an entry visa application form. The page does not give documents, fees or timing, so ask the Ministry for the current checklist before applying.
- An earlier government page listed ten countries and did not include Bangladesh, and Wikipedia says Bangladeshis can enter without a visa for 3 months. Because the sources differ, confirm in writing with the Ministry before booking or paying for tickets.
- A visa does not guarantee entry. Immigration officers decide at the port of entry.
