Togo visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Online e-visa (voyage.gouv.tg) · Last checked: 5 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/togo/

Togo runs an official government e-visa portal at voyage.gouv.tg. The portal says standard visa requests take about 5 days, must be filed at least 5 days before arrival, and that visas on arrival and express visas are suspended. The UK government's travel advice, which reflects the same portal, says a single-entry tourist visa lasts 15 days. We did not find an official page that lists the fee for Bangladeshi passport holders: third-party sites quote very different figures, so the fee is marked for confirmation. Last checked 5 November 2026.

Quick facts

Visa needed?
Yes, for a Bangladeshi ordinary passport. The official portal offers a visa-need checker and says visa on arrival is suspended. Bangladesh-specific eligibility should still be confirmed with our office.
