Trinidad and Tobago visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Likely visa-free; confirm with Immigration · Last checked: 2 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/trinidad-and-tobago/

Trinidad and Tobago's airport authority says Commonwealth citizens do not need visas except for a list of 11 countries, and Bangladesh is not on that list, so Bangladeshi citizens appear to be visa-exempt. We could not read the Immigration Division's official exempt-countries PDF, and no stay length for Bangladesh is published on the pages we read, so key facts are marked for confirmation. Nationals who do need a visa apply through the government eVisa portal. Last checked 1 November 2026.

Quick facts

Visa needed?
Probably not. The airport authority page exempts Commonwealth citizens except 11 listed countries, and Bangladesh is not listed. Confirm with the Immigration Division before booking.

Do you need a visa?

- The Trinidad and Tobago airport authority page says Commonwealth citizens do not require a visa except for 11 listed countries; Bangladesh is not among them. The Immigration Division also publishes a list of countries that do not need a visa; we could not read it, so ask the Immigration Division to confirm your exemption and permitted stay in writing.
- Immigration officers decide entry at the border. Carry genuine proof of purpose, accommodation, funds and onward travel.

Total cost

- If visa-exempt: no visa fee. If an eVisa is required: TTD 800 for multiple entry (portal, checked 1 November 2026), non-refundable. Travel Counsellor Ltd. service charges, if any, are quoted separately in BDT by our office; confirm BDT with our office.

Partly verified

Processing time

- The eVisa portal gives no processing time. If you are exempt, there is no visa processing.

Things to watch

- Visa-exempt status for Bangladesh is inferred from an official but secondary page. Confirm with the Immigration Division.
- Use only the official government eVisa portal; avoid look-alike sites.
- Travel Counsellor Ltd. is a private consultancy, not an embassy. Decisions rest with Trinidad and Tobago immigration.
- No approval is guaranteed and fees can change.

Frequently asked questions

Do Bangladeshis need a visa for Trinidad and Tobago?
