Third-party sources say Bangladeshi ordinary passport holders need a visa for Tunisia, obtained from a Tunisian embassy before travel. What we could verify

- We could not read an official Tunisian page for Bangladeshi nationals. The Foreign Ministry site returned a certificate error and aggregator sites disagree on the e-visa and on the mission to use.
- Do not trust any site claiming visa-free entry for Bangladesh unless it is the Tunisian Foreign Ministry or a Tunisian embassy.

Cost and timing

- Expect a government fee plus service and courier charges. Our office will quote a BDT total after confirming with the mission.
- Allow at least two to three weeks and do not buy non-refundable tickets before the visa is issued.
