Vanuatu visa guide for Bangladeshi passport holders

How to apply: Confirm with Vanuatu Immigration (visa-exempt list not confirmed for Bangladesh) · Last checked: 3 November 2026 · Online version: https://travelcsbd.com/visa/vanuatu/

Vanuatu's Department of Immigration publishes a list of visa-exempted countries, and the Vanuatu Tourism Office says citizens of exempt countries need no visa for stays up to 120 days while other nationals must get a visa before arrival. We could not open the exempt list itself, so we could not confirm whether Bangladesh is on it. Third-party sites mostly say visa-free but disagree on the stay. Confirm in writing before booking. How to travel

- Official Vanuatu material says exempt nationals need no visa for up to 120 days and everyone else must obtain a visa before arrival. Ask the Department of Immigration to confirm in writing which applies to a Bangladeshi passport.
- Entry is decided at the border. Carry genuine accommodation details, an onward ticket and proof of funds.

Partly verified

Total cost

- If a visa is required, the fee shown by the Vanuatu Tourism Office is 5,150 VT (another tourism page shows 3,600 VT, so confirm). Add airfare and transit visas. Travel Counsellor Ltd. service charges for document checks, if any, are quoted separately in BDT by our office. Checked 3 November 2026.

Partly verified

Processing time

- No official processing time was found. Apply early and confirm with the Department of Immigration.

Things to watch

- We could not confirm Bangladesh's status on Vanuatu's exempt list; get written confirmation.
- Stay and fee figures differ between official-linked pages (120 or 30 days; 5,150 or 3,600 VT).
- Do not use dummy tickets or fake bookings.
- Travel Counsellor Ltd. is a private consultancy, not an embassy. Entry decisions rest with Vanuatu immigration.
- No approval is guaranteed and rules can change.
